Jill Linn Smith

A native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Jill was Miss Shelton State in 1996, and at age 17 she represented the college at the Miss Alabama Pageant.

After auditioning for Dollywood, Jill moved to Sevierville, Tennessee to perform for them as a singer, dancer, and actress, while continuing her education. She performed in various shows for six years, many with Dolly Parton, and performed at the Opryland Hotel as well. While at Dollywood, she also appeared in numerous commercials, print work, billboards and live television shows. She later became a member of the auditioning team.

Jill's success at Dollywood led her to the Louise Mandrel Theatre, where she performed as a singer and dancer for 3 years, and toured numerous states. Jill has also performed at Southern Nights Theatre, Glasgow Dinner Theatre, and the Black Bear Jamboree. She presently performs with her husband and family at the Smith Family Theater.

Jill is a graduate of Carson-Newman College with a major in Communication Arts and a minor in Music. She is the State Director for the Tennessee Cinderella Scholarship Pageant and has helped produce 3 International Winners from Tennessee this past July.

She is excited to return to Shelton State & wishes each contestant the best of luck!
